

INTERIOR TREND

Apollo five-light chandelier
£690, houseofisabella.co.uk

Vitra Eames lounge chair and ottoman
£8,645, johnlewis.com

Set of vases, mid-20th century
£222 per set of 5, vinterior.com

Pleated column table lamp
£22, habitat.co.uk

Cylindrical ceramic jug, 1960s
£181, 1stdibs.com

Vitra Noguchi coffee table,
£1,900, johnlewis.com

Louis Poulsen Panthella light
£235, arredare.co.uk

Greta sofa bed
£799, urbanoutfitters.com

MIDCENTRY MODERN

Interiors are so 1945 (to 1969)...

The design of the post-WW2 period was bold and experimental; it rebelled against all the bleakness and austerity that had come before. That said, it also retained some of wartime's frugality – embellishments were minimal and materials honest. Now, mid-century design is back in a big way. Anyone who's anyone has a teak sideboard, Eames lounge and Noguchi coffee table – here's how to go back to the future.

Edited by: Anna Solomon

Italian mid-century modern irregular ceramic vase
£448, 1stdibs.com

Solid teak bookcase
£719, tikamoon.co.uk

Janeiro mango wood sideboard
£844, maisonsdumonde.com

Embroidered geo cushion
£16, argos.co.uk